

International Cooperation in the Social Sciences and Humanities: Comparative Historical Perspectives and Future Possibilities

0

1 , 1 1 0

Welcome address. , (CNRS, CESSP)

Opening. (European Commission)

Introduction. (CNRS-EHES, CESSP)

- Introduction. (University of Graz), (CEU).

00 0 - Chair: (University of Barcelona).

and (University of Graz): Germany's coming to term with its past as the blueprint for the analysis of the development of the SSH.

and (Erasmus University, Rotterdam): The SSH in the Netherlands: intellectual and institutional convergence in a peripheral country.

Expansion and differentiation of Social Sciences and Humanities in Sweden 1945–2015 and (University of Uppsala): A reversed order.

11:15-11:30: Coffee break

00 0 - Chair: (Berggruen Institute).

and (CNRS, CESSP): The SSH in France: institutionalization, autonomization, and professionalization.

(University of Cambridge): The SSH in the UK: Historical patterns and current challenges.

(CNRS, CESSP): The growth of SSH in the United States: a socio-historical perspective.

13:00-14:30: Lunch break

0 0 - Chair: (EHESS).

and (University of Bologna): The SSH in Italy: institutionalization, bureaucratization and tribalization.

and (CEU): The Social Sciences in Hungary. A case of State obstructed, State controlled and State sponsored development to normal sciences.

and (CONICET): SSH in Argentina: arduous institutionalization, recent expansion and intra-national asymmetries.

(EHESS, CNRS, CESSP): Graduate programs, national agencies and international foundations: renewal of social sciences in Brazil since the 1960s.

16:30-16:45: Coffee break

0 0 - Round table, . Chair: (Univ. of Bielefeld).

(University of Cambridge), (University of Graz), (EHESS), (CONICET).

-
Introduction. (Erasmus University, Rotterdam) and (CONICET).
00 0 (University of Freiburg). . Chair:

and , (CNRS, CESSP): Patterns of circulation of academic books in translation.

and (CONICET): Translations of academic books in Argentina. A comparative study of translations from French, English, German, Italian and Portuguese.
(University of Graz): Paratexts in SSH Translations: Guiding Circulation.

11:15-11:30: Coffee break

00 01 - , - Chair: , (CEU).

, (Paris 8 University): Assessing the role of contemporary Western sociology in North-East Asia (South Korea, Japan).

(CNRS, CESSP): Postcolonial internationalization of Algerian SSH researchers.

12:30-14:00: Lunch break

0 0 - - Chair: Didier Georgakakis (Paris 1 University, CESSP).

and (CNRS, CESSP): The emergence of a European research space.

, (CNRS, CESSP) and (Erasmus University, Rotterdam): What is a European journal in the SSH?

(CNRS, CESSP): Are there European Social Sciences? What professional associations tell us about the structure of the social sciences in Europe.

15:30-16:00: Coffee break

0 ,0 Round table, - Chair:
(CNRS, CESSP).

(Erasmus University, Rotterdam), (European Commission),
(CEU), (university of Bologna), (Paris 1 University, CESSP).

- Introduction. (University of Cambridge) and (University of Bologna).

00 0 - Chair: (University of Bielefeld).

(University of Bologna): The world of Semiotics. Research, teaching, and occupations.

(CNRS, CESSP): The international circulation of literary theory: a French-American case study.

and (University of Bologna): Crossing disciplines across countries. On the supposed "Britishness" of Cultural Studies and their "translation" in Italy, France and Germany.

11:15-11:30: Coffee break

00 0 - - Chair: (UQAM).

(Paris 8 University): The transnational making of "public economics." The contribution of American, British and French economists to the theoretical analysis of State intervention.

(Erasmus University, Rotterdam): The (non) diffusion of Multiple Correspondence Analysis.

(CNRS, CESSP): The traceability of racial and ethnic origins in the US, the UK and France: National academic traditions and circulation of policy models.

13:00-14:30: Lunch break

0 0 - - Chair: (Paris 1 University, CESSP).

(University of Bologna): Arendt between disciplines. The troubled canonization of Arendt in Germany and Italy.

(CONICET): The Foucault effect in Argentina.

and (CNRS, CESSP): How to become an international intellectual? Thomas Piketty and The Capital in the 21st century.

16:00-16:15: Coffee break

0 0 , 0 0 - Chair: (Ca' Foscari University of Venice).

and (CNRS, CESSP): The disciplinary and transnational circulation of a "traveling theory". The reception of Edward Said's work in the francophone academic space.

(CNRS, CESSP): The reception of Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak in France: (why) was it so complicated to translate the Postcolonial Studies?

0 0 , 0 - Chair: (CEU).

(Berggruen Institute), (UQAM), (CNRS, CESSP), (University of Barcelona).